Electroweak gauge boson production at higher orders with FEWZ

Ryan Gavin

Paul Scherrer Institut

Abstract
Electroweak gauge boson production is an important piece of the physics program at the LHC. Knowing this process precisely is critical. I will present the current status of FEWZ: a computational tool to calculate electroweak gauge boson production at NNLO in QCD. The program also contains the electroweak corrections to Z boson production.

organized by the research groups of Profs. Dittmaier, Ita and van der Bij